

HANNAH ARENDT : POLITICS AND PHILOSOPHY

Professors: Richard Bernstein and Alice Crary, Spring 2021

This seminar will pursue a number of themes central to Arendt's thinking, including the human condition, labor, work, action, politics, power, thinking, willing and judging. We will roughly follow her intellectual development. Readings will include selections from The Jewish Writings, The Origins of Totalitarianism, The Human Condition, On Revolution, Between Past and Future, Crises of the Republic, and The Life of the Mind.
